

SUMMONER REQUEST #485

Oh God the voices....

I have been doing night jobs watching this warehouse, I don't know much about the owners, but it pays good money. But I have been noticing things.

The first night was very calm. Some boxes had a rubble noise, but nothing else.

The second night something fell over, I felt the look at it. It was only a vase, yet I felt like I was being watched with the tiny feet walking in the distance. I thought it was a child.

The third night I bought a hamburger with me to eat. It made me sleepy; it had a lot of ketchup. But it kept falling on the floor. There was more ketchup falling than there was on the burger.

The fourth night something fell again. I went to check it out but there was nothing until I went back into my office, seeing scratch marks.

The Fifth night I fell asleep. I had a nightmare, one where I fell into a blood-filled sea, being almost drowned in it until I woke up on a blood covered island, on it, a building with only a door made from blood. I heard birds in the distance, but they looked like blood clots. I woke up when getting near the door.

The sixth night I wanted to explore the basement more, and I found something. I think it was a rat, but it was on fire. That must have been making the noise. I brought it up to my supervisor, he said I should get some sleep and he will hire someone to see what it was.

The seventh night I saw a man enter the basement. He was wearing a white suit with a purple shirt with a yellow tie. He told me to fuck off when I tried to talk to him. I only saw some flashes from the security cameras.

Nothing happened for 34 more nights.

The 35th night is when the voices started. I have no idea what it was, but they keep coming. I can feel something breathing on my neck when I try to sit down. They are taunting me. The boss would say I'm crazy if I said anything. He told me to talk to you about it, but you keep saying it's nothing. Anyways recently I have been finding cuts on my arms and legs. I believe it could be because of the rats. Please send someone to kill these rats!
